Welcoming activity for freshman at International College, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, August 14th, 2019.

Our students from all majors arrange the activity such as singing, dancing and ice breaking for freshman in front of International College's building. This opportunity brings everyone in unity and introduces new students to each other before school starts. Hope you enjoy and gain good experience.