

Lecturers of Hotel Management Program, International College, Suan Sunandha Rajabhat University, Visited the Inner Area of Bangkok for The Assessment of Street Food According to TPQI (Thailand Professional Qualification Institute), Public Organization. During January 7-8, 2020

The faculty visited the area in Bangkok to assess cleanliness, preparation of raw materials and food including customer service from operators and employees. After evaluating the procedures, recommendations for improvement should be introduced.

